

Hardware manufacturers

NOKIA

| | | | | | |
|---------------------------------|--|---|--|--|--|
| Minor | 13 and under | Services minimum age 13 | No age restriction | No age restriction | N/A |
| Parental controls desktop | Parents can set up a profile for their children, which is locked with an administrator password. | N/A | Specific profile within OS locked by admin password and/or 3rd party software. | Samsung supports current apps which can be downloaded by de user/parent to help control the end-user. Samsung's additional development are on-going. | N/A |
| Websites desktop | Access to adult websites can be deactivated, or parents can choose which sites can be accessed by the child, allowing a more granular and individualized approach. | N/A | Specific profile within OS locked by admin password and/or 3rd party software. | Samsung supports current apps which can be downloaded by de user/parent to help control the end-user. Samsung's additional development are on-going. | N/A |
| Chat | Parents can decide with which people the child can interact via iChat. | Minimum age 13. For minors over 13 years of age, registration is subject to legal competence under local law. | Specific restrictions by settings in the software program itself and/or 3rd party software | Samsung supports current apps which can be downloaded by de user/parent to help control the end-user. Samsung's additional development are on-going. | N/A |
| E-mail | Parents can decide with which people the child can interact via iChat. | Minimum age 13. For minors over 13 years of age, registration is subject to legal competence under local law. | Specific restrictions by settings in the software program itself and/or 3rd party software | Samsung supports current apps which can be downloaded by de user/parent to help control the end-user. Samsung's additional development are on-going. | N/A |
| Parental control mobile devices | All iOS devices have the possibility to set restrictions via the settings menu. These restrictions are also protected with a passcode which is set by the parent. You can choose to restrict access to several applications and features on the device, of which the following are relevant for privacy: Safari, YouTube, Camera (also disables FaceTime), FaceTime, Ping, Installing apps, Deleting apps, Multiplayer games in Game Center, Adding friends in Game Center | Nokia will start introducing parental tools from 2013. Features and timing will differ across Nokia's several software platforms. | LG will provide for Parental Tools on their new models mobile phone as from Jan 2013. | Samsung supports current apps which can be downloaded by de user/parent to help control the end-user. Samsung's additional development are on-going. | "All new BB Devices will allow parents to control access to services and applications on their children's BB Smartphones: Phone calls - also limit incoming calls to stored contacts Text messages. Exchange of files over a Bluetooth connection Use of location services, like GPS, Allow Internet access, Allow uploading of files to the YouTube website -This restriction does not limit access to the YouTube website. Allow installation of third party applications, Allow the addition of new email accounts, Allow access to Facebook and Twitter. You must either allow or restrict access to both applications. If you select or clear the checkbox for one option, the setting is automatically applied to the other option. Allow picture taking. Allow access to BB Messenger. For older versions of BB Smartphones a downloadable App will be available shortly with the same features as above" |
| Parental control apps | Parents can restrict access to certain applications on the computer and to the possibility to modify the dock of applications. | N/A | N/A | N/A | Parents can control/ restrict access to applications and games based on CTIA/ESRB content ratings guidelines Ratings control settings are passcode protected. |